CROSSWAY BOOKS, United States, 2018. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English. Brand new Book. Who are you? What gives a man his identity? On what foundation are you building your sense of self? Your answer, whether true or false, defines your life. Wrong ways of defining who we are arise naturally in our hearts, and the world around us preaches and models innumerable false identities. What are the ways men get identity wrong? Perhaps you construct a sense of self by the accomplishments listed on your resume. You might identify yourself by your lineage or ethnicity, by your marital status or parental role. Your sense of self might be based on money, on achievements, on the approval of others, on your self-esteem. Perhaps you think that your sins define you: an angry man, an addict, an anxious people-pleaser. Perhaps afflictions define you: disability, cancer, divorce. In each case, your sense of identity comes unglued from the God who actually defines you. Who God says you are God's way of sizing up a man goes against the grain of our instinctive opinions and strategies. Rather than giving in to the culture's view, allow these biblical realities to orient you: Your true identity is who God says you are. You will never discover who you are by looking inside yourself or listening to what others say. The Lord gets the first word because he made you. He gets the daily word because you live before his face. He gets the last word because he will administer your final "comprehensive life review. Your true identity inseparably connects you to God. Everything you ever learn about who God is--his identity--correlates specifically to something about who you are. For example, "your Father knows your need" means you are always a dependent child. "Jesus Christ is your Lord"...
